

Waldorf education works with the growing capacities of your young child to cultivate a passion for learning:

- Joy in movement
- Development of the imagination
- Reverence for the natural world
- Plenty of outdoor play in nature
- Beautiful surroundings
- Emphasis on rhythm, simplicity and balance
- Rich story curriculum

Location

Three Cedars Waldorf School
556 – 124th Avenue NE, Bellevue

Preschool We offer an innovative preschool experience for children age 2-1/2 to four years old. Our preschool provides our young students an expanded social circle within the context of a peaceful and nurturing setting for their imagination, physical challenges for their bodies and a loving, beautiful environment for their well-being. Our home-like classroom eases the child's transition from home life into school.

Mixed-Age Kindergarten Three Cedars Waldorf School offers a kindergarten experience for children five to six years old (younger with teacher assessment only). In our kindergarten the child's imagination is nurtured as a great treasure, healthy social interactions are guided, listening skills are sharpened and large and fine motor skills are nurtured to prepare the young child for future academic challenges in the grade school.
